

Privacy Policy

The Pharmaceutical and Medical Device Regulatory Science Society of Japan (PMRJ) will strive to protect personal information based on the following policies:

1. Compliance with Laws and Regulations

PMRJ will comply with all laws and regulations related to the protection of personal information in order to ensure that personal information is handled properly.

2. Collection and Use of Personal Information

Before collecting or using personal information, PMRJ will clearly indicate why the information will be collected. In addition, PMRJ will use the information only for the purpose that has been communicated or announced in advance.

Aggregated data which has been anonymized may be used by PMRJ and by third parties for tracking of view or usage of PMRJ's websites.

PMRJ will not sell, trade or rent your personal information to third parties.

3. Provision of Personal Information to Third Parties

Except when legally required to do so, PMRJ will not provide personal information it has obtained to any third party without the consent of the person. In addition, when contracting for the handling of personal information, PMRJ will require the contractor to handle the information properly in accordance with this policy.

4. Security Control Measures

PMRJ has established Rules for Protection of Personal Information and will strive to ensure that personal information is handled properly.

PMRJ will take appropriate precautionary measures to ensure safety and accuracy in the management of personal information to prevent risks, such as unauthorized access to personal information, loss of personal information, damage, falsification, and leakage.

5. Requests Regarding Information Held by PMRJ

If a person makes a request regarding his or her personal information held by PMRJ, such as a request that the information be disclosed, corrected, deleted, or no longer used, PMRJ will promptly respond in good faith.
